PROOF OF ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

Since we are an English language school, there is no language requirement to enter our program. If you want to take advanced-level classes, you must either test at a sufficient level or take some other preparatory classes first.

FINANCIAL VERIFICATION (in U.S. dollars)

Your financial documentation must be translated into English and the amount must be shown in U.S. dollars.

Your documents should be dated within sixty (60) days of the application and should be shown in U.S. dollars. ESL Instruction estimates that you will need approximately $18,000.00 per year to pay for tuition, rent, utilities, food, transportation, medical insurance, etc.

The documents may be one of the following:

- 1) An original bank statement in your name or an official letter on letterhead from your bank showing that you have $18,000.00*; or
- 2) A notarized sponsor's proof of ability to sponsor (bank statement, etc., for at least $18,000.00) AND the sponsor's notarized letter promising to use at least $18,000.00 of the financial resources shown to support the student for studies in the U.S.

* If you have dependants, calculate an extra $400.00 per month ($4800.00 per year) per dependant.

Application processing fee of $75.00, $75.00 postage and handling fee (if mailed outside the U.S.), and $50.00 per class registration fees ($150 for 3 classes) are nonrefundable. However, IF the Embassy Office denies your application for a student visa AND you return the original I-20 to us via certified mail along with proof that you were denied by the Embassy, then the $150.00 in registration fees will be returned. If you simply change your mind, the entire $300.00 advance fees and tuition will be forfeited.
